ACADEMY

Wondering if COLLEGE is the right path for you?

Join us for a FREE academy at IU Bloomington held on four Saturdays in the spring to find out.

9:30 AM – 2:30 PM

Jan 25, Feb 8, Mar 7, April 4

Student must attend all four sessions to complete the academy

- Learn about careers in education: early childhood, elementary, secondary, special education, higher education student affairs, and counseling.
- Connect with higher education professionals to: get help with college applications, find funding, and get support with college life and time management.
- Meet peers from around the state of Indiana. Pair up with a college mentor. Learn more about other cultures, globalization, and the IU campus.

Interested high school students need to be recommended by a teacher or counselor and commit to attending all four sessions. All students are welcome to apply. Spots limited to 50 participants. Students considering a major or career in teaching will be given preference.

This academy is a college readiness program designed to increase the numbers of Black, Latinx, indigenous students, and rural males interested in careers in education.
