The applications must be completed and received by the Indiana Sheriffs' Association on or before April 1, 2020.

Ivy Tech Community College Volunteer Firefighter Scholarship

(For Active Volunteer Firefighters and EMS Personnel)

Thank you for serving your community. We deeply appreciate your time and commitment, and in return, we want to help you and your family.

The scholarship provides funds for individuals in any Ivy Tech Community College program, as long as they are an active volunteer firefighter or EMS personnel.

Here are some other things to consider about the scholarship:

Why are you offering the Volunteer Firefighter Scholarship?

How long is the scholarship available?

Who is eligible for the Volunteer Firefighter Scholarship?

What other enrollment criteria is there?

Are there any exceptions?

What if I am a paid firefighter and a volunteer firefighter? Can I receive the scholarship?

What if I already have a degree? Am I still eligible?

What programs are available to me?

How long is the scholarship available?

What if I receive state or federal aid? Can I still receive the scholarship funds?

Will I have to meet Indiana's FAFSA deadline?

What if I receive funding from the Workforce Ready Grant \(Next Level Jobs program\)?

What happens if I need to leave Ivy Tech Community College, or if I quit volunteering with an emergency service?

How to enroll and claim free tuition:

1. Apply to Ivy Tech Community College.
2. Complete the FAFSA to apply for financial aid.
3. Request a letter from the fire department or medical provider confirming your active volunteer status. Once you have the letter, send it to your local Ivy Tech Registrar's office.

Once your student account is coded by the Registrar's office, you will be able to declare a program of study and sign up for classes in your chosen program.

Please remember to resubmit a letter every term. If you need to stop attending classes for a period of time, a new letter must be presented upon your re-enrollment at Ivy Tech.

PURDUE EARLY START

Early Start allows students to get ahead in their coursework, get to know campus early, experience great weather, and participate in small classes.

What are the advantages of starting early?

- Early Start offers online and on-campus options to fit your schedule.
- 60% of Purdue students who graduate in four years or less complete at least one summer course.
- Students net an average of $22,300 by utilizing summer to graduate one semester early and $52,094 when graduating in three years.
- Add a second major or multiple minors without increasing time to graduation.
- Lighten future semesters to focus on difficult courses.
- Prepare for undergraduate research by completing an introduction to research course taught by the Honors College.

Students who have accepted their offer of admission for Fall 2020 may request to switch to Early Start by submitting the "Switch to Early Start" form under the Reply Forms tab of their admissions application portal (when logging in, use the email address you provided on your admission application, not your purdue.edu address). Early Start is available on a first come, first served basis to domestic students only. If you do not see the form on your application portal and have questions about your eligibility, please email us at thinksummer@purdue.edu or call us at (765) 496-7237.

IU Health is now offering a 4.5-month training program for Pharmacy Technicians, which is offered 2 times per year with start dates in July and January. The program is an accelerated, full-time day's program providing students with skills necessary to be successful in the workforce. The tuition, books and fees for the program are approximately $2800 and upon graduation, the students receive a certificate and are prepared to take the national pharmacy technician certification exam (PTCB). Application deadlines are April 1st, 2020 for the July class and September 25th, 2020 for the January class.

The IU Health Pharmacy Technician Training Program has been in existence for 20 years and was the first ASHP accredited program located in the state of Indiana. This program has an excellent reputation of delivering quality trained pharmacy technicians to the work force. The attached information provides an in-depth look at our program for your students who are interested in a career in healthcare.

If you are interested in seeking a nomination, please see your counselor.

IUPUC Nursing Direct Admit Application Info

IUPUC is currently recruiting high-achieving high school seniors interested in pursuing a BSN for our Direct Admit cohort. If you are potentially interested in the IUPUC nursing program and have a minimum cumulative GPA of 3.2 attached is the Direct Admit Application.

The benefit of being accepted into our Direct Admit cohort is that those in the cohort will be guaranteed a spot in the nursing program after completing their freshman/pre-requisite year at IUPUC. Those students are able to complete their freshman year without the worries and uncertainty of being admitted into the nursing program starting their sophomore year. Additionally, those accepted into our Direct Admit cohort will be given the opportunity to take NURS-B104: Power Up! Strategies for Academic Success during the summer prior to their first fall semester at IUPUC for free—we will offer those students a scholarship for this course, allowing them to be oriented into IUPUC and the nursing program, while also establishing relationships with their peers and academic advisor.

The deadline for Direct Admit Application submissions is March 31st.

College Application Process:

Go to the college's website and locate the admission page, create an account, review the admissions requirement and complete the application. Before you submit the application, proofread the application. Last step is to request a transcript on Parchment.

Ordering a Transcript

Transcripts will be fulfilled through Parchment. This is an electronic exchange between high schools and colleges to send your transcript. Most all colleges are using this exchange. You may also request for one to be sent to yourself. Look for the icon on the CNHS home page and create your account today or click on the link below. Most all colleges request transcripts be sent electronically. Create an account with an email you will use after graduation. Your school email will expire after you graduate and you may need to access your high school transcript after graduation. Students can pick up registration code in the Counseling Center. <https://www.parchment.com>

College Application Reminders

- Most college applications need to be submitted by November 1st for students to be considered for merit scholarships.
- SAT/ACT scores must be sent directly from the testing center
- Please allow approximately 10 school days for teachers and counselors to complete recommendations (if required). Plan ahead as teachers and counselors get many requests
- Submit college applications before fall break for November 1 deadlines.
- Check for FAFSA deadlines specific to colleges where applying
- For the 2019-2020 school year, you can file anytime from October 1, 2018, to June 30, 2020
